2. Description of the main features of the credit product

The type of credit	Nordea Gold, continuous credit
The total amount of credit This means the ceiling of the total sum made available under the credit agreement.	EUR 1 500 - 10 000
The conditions governing the drawdown This means how and when you will obtain the money.	The creditor opens the granted credit for the customer's use after a favourable credit decision. The credit will be available after the borrower has received the card.
The duration of the credit agreement	The credit linked to the card is valid until further notice.
Instalments and, where appropriate the order in which instalments will be allocated	You will have to pay the following: The credit is repaid in monthly instalments that include interest on the outstanding principal and amortisation of the principal. The amount of the amortisation of the principal is the agreed percentage of the capital balance of the credit at the time of invoicing. For instance, if EUR 1 500 has been spent of the credit and the amortisation percentage is four (4), the monthly instalment is EUR 60, added with interest, if any. Other fees subject to the agreement must be paid in connection with the monthly instalment on the agreed due date.
The total amount you will have to pay Refers to the amount of the loan principal, interest and other expenses related to your credit, if any.	The total credit amount depends on the use of the credit, its repayment and the validity of the credit agreement. The estimated total payable credit amount with interest and charges if, for example, EUR 1 500 has been spent of the credit, is EUR 1 666 with interest and costs assuming that the credit period is one year and that the credit is used in full, the borrowing rate (December 2023) and the charges and fees remain unchanged during the entire credit period and that the credit is repaid in 12 equal monthly instalments. The costs related to the opening and drawdown of the credit as well as repayment subject to the credit agreement are included in the calculation.
Sureties required Here is a description of the surety that you must give in connection with the credit agreement.	The credit is unsecured.

3. Costs of the credit

The borrowing rate or, if applicable, different borrowing rates which apply to the credit agreement	At the beginning of the credit relationship, the borrowing rate is the 3-month Euribor rate (reference interest rate) quoted on the interest revision date of the interest calculation period corresponding to the beginning of the credit relationship, these days being the first day of March, June, September and December, added with 9,5 %. The value of the reference rate is revised on the interest revision dates in accordance with the terms of the credit account.
Annual percentage rate of charge (APR) This is the total cost expressed as an annual percentage of the total amount of credit. The APR is there to help you compare different offers.	The APR (all expenses included) is 21,7 %. The calculation is based on a credit of EUR 1 500 in use, the three-month Euribor (December 2023) and it includes the annual fee for the principal card and the fee related to account maintenance EUR 4,50. E-invoice has been used as a default invoicing method in the calculation.
